Texarkana Railroad Men Commend Rev. Turrentine

Texarkana Lodge No. 248, through its president, J. G. Holloway, indited the following letter yesterday, which is self-explanatory, and shows the esteem and love in which Rev. J. B. Turrentine is held by them in this city:

Texarkana, Texas, Dec. 12, 1910. To the President and Members of Lodge No. 368, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Palestine, Texas: Dear Sirs and Brothers:—Rev. J. B. Turrentine, twice pastor of the Central M. E. church of this city, has been transferred to your city to become pastor of the Methodist church there.

Dr. Turrentine has been our friend, and the members of Interstate Lodge No. 248 are all friends of Brother Turrentine. We love him for his manly christian character, for his devotion to duty and his love of humanity. No class of citizens of Texarkana regret to lose the fellowship of this good man of God more than the railway men, and especially do the members of the Trainmen's Brotherhood delight to honor him. He conducted the devotional services on June 12, 1910, for the joint memorial service of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and for his many other acts of kindness we commend him. We want you to extend him the right hand of fellowship and welcome him to your city, to your hearts and to your homes, and we assure you that your courtesies will not only be reciprocated, but will be highly appreciated by us all here.

Fraternally yours, James G. Holloway, President Lodge No. 248.

Presented With Token.

Rev. J. B. Turrentine, for many years pastor of Central Methodist church in Texarkana, has been chosen to fill the pastorate at Palestine and he and his estimable wife leave today for his new field of labor.

Rev. Turrentine has been one of the leading ministers of this city during his residence here, and his popularity among his congregation and the railroad men is attested by the handsome gifts presented to him yesterday on the eve of his departure.

A beautiful silver service set was given by the members of his church, the presentation speech being made by Judge Watlington, and the members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen gave him a handsome leather portfolio, E. A. Smith, representing the trainmen, making a neat little talk on behalf of the members.

A feeling response was made by the much-beloved minister, and it was plainly evident that he was deeply touched and, with a heart full of gratitude, he thanked his friends for their generous remembrance and tokens to himself and wife.—Texarkana Courier.

The Toyland Store.

Have you seen the big stock of Toys at the Motley Drug Store? If not you should see it before you buy. There you will find gifts suitable for every one, from the cheapest tin toy to the most expensive gift at a low price. The stock was bought new for this year's shopping, and it is right up-to-date, and as pretty a lot of toys, dolls, novelties of all kinds, etc., as you ever saw. Do not fail to see Motley's stock of Christmas goods. 9-4t
